

PROGRAM: All Indian Business Development Program (AIDA) Information Not Updated

AGENCY: All Indian Pueblo Council

DESCRIPTION: AIDA is funded through the Federal Minority Business Development Administration and provides assistance to qualified minority business owners.

ELIGIBLE USES:

- AIDA's assistance includes, but is not limited to:
 - Financial planning and packaging,
 - Marketing and management assistance,
 - Business planning,
 - Procurement and contracting,
 - Accounting systems,
 - Organizational development, and
 - Computer assisted programs.

PROGRAM/LOAN STRUCTURE:

- Fees: Most services are free of charge to Native American business owners. A minimum fee is charged to other minorities and for certain fee-based assignments.

QUALIFICATION CRITERIA/COMMENTS:

- The program is available to qualified Pueblos and Tribes with businesses located in New Mexico.
- Priority is given to businesses with high employment potential.