

AGENCY: New Mexico Technet

DESCRIPTION: Technet is an Albuquerque-based nonprofit organization established to develop a state-of-the-art communications network linking major research laboratories, universities, government agencies and businesses throughout the state.

ELIGIBLE USES:

- The network is designed to allow subscribing organizations and individuals access to a wide array of data for research and other purposes.
- Information available on Technet includes:
 - Electronic mail,
 - State, federal and local governments information,
 - Court information,
 - Technology transfer,
 - ZiaNet Library Network,
 - Nationwide and worldwide library connections,
 - Business directories,
 - Business opportunities,
 - Border trade information,
 - National Science Foundation Internet access,
 - University information, and
 - Special programs.
- For more information, visit <http://www.nm.org/> or call (505) 345-6555.