NMMS Recommitment and Strategy for Creative Economy work

Building on the existing commercial base, arts, culture, advanced technology and creative assets in New Mexico MainStreet communities, programs and initiatives, strive to strengthen and support entrepreneurial and creative endeavors through assessment, education, planning, and collaboration.
For New Mexico MainStreet, the Creative Economy is comprised of entrepreneurs, enterprises, and industries that engage intersections of commerce, creativity, innovation and culture. It includes those who produce creative products, those who turn creations into commercial products, those who distribute or market them, those who support creative endeavors and the spaces they live and work in.
Cultural Economy for NM – ACD Defined

• The New Mexico Arts & Cultural District (ACD) program supports its state authorized districts and local Coordinating Councils in developing and implementing cultural economic goals based on existing heritage, arts and cultural assets. This includes the creation of strategies to support arts and cultural entrepreneurs, the spaces they live and work in, cultural enterprises and cultural facilities, institutions, creative placemaking, and related organizations.
(1) be in a geographically contiguous area that ranges in size from a portion of a municipality to a regional district with a special coherence;

If your culture doesn’t like geeks, you are in real trouble. Bill Gates – Innovator
NM-ACD Statutory Purpose

(2) be distinguished by physical and cultural resources that play a vital role in the life and development, including Economic and Cultural, development of a community;

New Mexico Arts defines a local arts council as “a community organization or an agency of local government that supports cultural organizations, provides services to artists and arts organizations, and/or presents arts programming to the public.”

Your local arts council may vary.
How Large ($) Are New Mexico’s Local Arts Councils?

Revenues range from $11,000 to $1.8M. Avg. revenue excluding Santa Fe is $109,000.

The City of Santa Fe Arts Commission is the state’s only arts council that is a government entity and the city has heavily invested in arts and culture via Lodger’s Tax.

Of the Commission’s almost $1.8M in revenue they re-granted approximately $856,000 to local organizations.

They are the only New Mexico arts council that has a significant re-granting program.

Data for NM Arts funded councils only.

Art is an expressive form of culture.

“To be cultural, to have a culture, is to inhabit a place sufficiently intensive to cultivate it—to be responsible for it, to respond to it, to attend to it caringly.”
