Webinar: 2020 Funding Initiatives for New Mexico MainStreet Programs

Presenters: Eduardo Martinez, Lucas Pedraza and Daniel Gutierrez

When: 2:00 – 3:00 pm, Friday, March 27, 2020

NMMS will host a webinar on two upcoming funding resources for local MainStreet, Arts & Cultural District and active Frontier/Native America Communities affiliated with the New Mexico MainStreet program.

Eduardo Martinez, Revitalization Specialist in Organization and Leadership Development will discuss the funding criteria and expectations of the Resilient Communities Fund call for proposals which was distributed on March 12th. Eduardo is also Treasurer of the New Mexico Resiliency Alliance which provides seed grants for community economic development projects, in partnership with the McCune Charitable Foundation.

Lucas Pedraza and Daniel Gutierrez will provide an overview of the 2020 MainStreet Public Infrastructure funding goals, priority areas and application process. The Legislature appropriated $1.5 Million in capital outlay funds to the New Mexico MainStreet program.

Each presentation will be approximately 20-25 minutes with time for audience Q&A at the end of the session. Participants in the current NMMS grantwriting/fundraising training will receive the information in an earlier session and do not need to participate in both sessions.
